

Jaqueline Holland

December 14, 1945 - October 21, 2017

JACQUELINE ROBINSON HOLLAND, daughter of the late Russell James and Anginette Robinson, was born on December 14, 1945. She departed this life on October 21, 2017 after a brief illness.

"Jackie", as she was affectionately known, was a devoted mother and grandmother. She loved and adored her children and grandchildren. Nothing was too good for them and she ensured they knew how she felt. Jackie had loads of love to give and shared it when and where she could.

In her youth, she attended many of the neighborhood churches including Union Memorial Methodist Church, Doswell Temple and First Abyssinia Baptist Church before joining Perkins Square Baptist Church under the direction of Rev. Dr. Ward D. Yerby.

Jackie received and completed her education in Baltimore City Public School System. Shortly thereafter, she married her childhood sweetheart James Holland Jr. "Scoop". From this union, two children, Shawanda and James Holland III "Mousey" (who preceded her in death) were born. Her new role in life became that of a loving, caring, nurturing mother and homemaker. She made sure her children were protected and given every opportunity to advance in life and, she taught them right from wrong with a stern hand.

After the passing of her beloved husband, Jackie became a domestic engineer while continuing to raise her children single-handely until she met James Edward Glasco, "Butch". Having found a special endearing love again, she gave birth to Andre and Jameta Glascoe. These children were the apple of her ye and she loved them immensely. The three of them became a strong family unit whose love and bond could not be penetrated by any outsiders. That bond continues to this very day.

Jackie, the fifth child of nine (with 3 sisters and 2 brothers preceding her in death) enjoyed watching TV, listening to music, playing cards, going to casinos, talking on the telephone and spending time with her family. She really cherished taking planned and impromptu trips with her best friend Lorraine, who she loved unconditionally. They traveled up and down the east coast from Delaware to New Jersey to New York, Connecticut and, even went to Canada for a weekend trip. This was a shared love between the two of them.

Jackie was a kind and generous spirit who would do anything to help those in need. Keep in mind, she was no push over and would tell it like it was. She met numerous individuals wherever she went while venturing through this journey called life and she will sorely missed by many people whose lives she touched.

Jackie leaves to cherish her memory and keep the legacy going; her daughter, Shawanda (Donald) Faulcon; son Andre and daughter Jameta Glascoe; five grandchildren, Donald, Kayla and Kelly Faulcon; inaysia Glasco and Denim Johnson; three great-grandchildren, Aayriana Williams, Aubrey Faulcon and Dylan Faulcon; two sisters, Shirley Townes and Ernestine Robinson; one brother, Keith Robinson (LaVerne); a devoted and deeply loved friend, Lorraine "Smith" Bennett; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
