

Jarrett Turner Spruill

October 3, 1933 - August 7, 2004

Jarrett T. Spruill, Jr., son of the late Jarrett and Lacie Spruill, was born on October 3, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called him home on August 7, 2004 to take his rest after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore public schools. At an early age he became employed at Provident Hospital full-time in the Dietary Department on Division Street. The hospital later moved to Liberty Heights Ave and later was renamed Liberty Medical Center where Jarrett retired after 41 years of service. Jarrett was known by many as "JT" and "J." He made numerous friends wherever he went. He had a remarkable sense of humor and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to cherish his loving memories his wife, Joyce M. Spruill; one son, Jarrett T. Spruill III; four daughters, Yolanda M. Spruill, Lydia D. Harris, Yvette R. Dixon and Felicia G. Jones; one sister, Joyce Dickerson; one brother, James Spruill; one sister-in-law, Linda Spruill, one daughter-in-law, Valencia Spruill; two sons-in-law, Mark Jones and Richard Harris, seven grandchildren, one great grand niece, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. He met and married the woman of his dreams, Joyce M. Jackson on March 5, 1969, and out of this 35-year union one child was born, Yolanda M. Spruill.
