

Jarvis Emanuel Williams

October 25, 1979 - December 6, 2014

Jarvis Emanuel Williams, 35, was invited to enter the pearly gates, December 6, 2014. The second son of Carolyn Louise and Joshua E. Williams. Jarvis was born October 25, 1979 in Quinton, Virginia. He is preceded in death by his grandparents.

He had accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age and was spiritually grounded in the fellowship of Branches Runn Baptist Church in Amelia, Virginia. One of his favorite things to do was attend church.

Jarvis was educated in the New Kent County Public Schools and graduated from New Kent High School. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Business from Morris Brown College, a historically black college in Atlanta, Georgia.

He was formally employed by Sony Corporation where he started his career in the mailroom and advanced his career by working with promoters in the music industry. Being an avid lover of music, it delighted his soul when he occasionally worked with celebrities such as the levels of "Ice Cube", Usher, and the Black Light Entertainment Family Company, among many many others. Jarvis had even written a few songs.

He was a kind man with a great sense of humor. Jarvis was very intelligent and loved to talk politics. His favorite football team was the New England

Patroits which he enjoyed watching. He was always tailored down and would often say: "I like to be well kept". He was true to himself and was a man of strong character, with a glowing smile. Jarvis was very giving of time and willing to help anyone. He would give you the belt from his pants, if you needed it.

Left with comforting memories is his caring daughter, Journey Elise "JewJew"; devoted parents, Carolyn and Joshua Williams; beloved brother, Eric T. Williams, Sr. (Donna); niece, Erica T. Williams; nephew, Eric T. Williams, Jr. "EJ"; three aunts, five uncles, a multitude of cousins, other relatives and loving friends.

We thank the Lord for the many wonderful years
He shared Jarvis with us!

“ Jarvis was a good friend of my husband, which made him a friend of mine. When I first met him I knew that he was a positive and respectful young man. He was a pleasure to be around always smiling. My husband looked at him as a brother. I am saddened by his passing but happy that I have had the pleasure of knowing him and will hold on to the memories as will my husband. May he RIP..

“ Just to be in Jarvis' presence would always make you laugh and smile. He had such an optimistic character that we would walk the campus of MBC looking for four leaf climbers because he just knew we would and could find at least one! Sorry for the loss, but I'm sure he will find other ways to make the Williams Family smile. Much peace and comfort for your heart's to carry you through--Fellow C/O 2003 MBC Grad

“ Jarvis was always in good spirits and very uplifting. He had just text me last week with words of advice to move on from a lost love and to be happy again. He always had a smile on his face no matter what he was going through, and his positive attitude always gave me a reason to smile even when I felt there wasn't one. We werent extremely close, but we kept in touch over the years, and his passing has affected me in ways I never could imagine. I send my condolences to everyone else who is affected by the loss of such a beautiful soul. I will always remember that beautiful smile of his.
