JASON AARON BROOKS, son of the late Jerome Brooks and Novella Gardner was born on August 31, 1984 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life and went on to be with Lord on May 6, 2015 when the Lord decided to call Jason home after his long struggle with a rare brain illness.

At the tender age of 18 Jason was diagnosed with a life threatening illness that led to his untimely death. Jason was a kind and tender soul despite his illness which eventually took his mobility and vision. Jason was a ray of hope and a beam of sunshine to all who knew him. Throughout his illness Jason came in contact with many people and touched many heart. Before losing his sight Jason was very active and enjoyed many indoor as well as outdoor activities, but most of all Jason loved to spend quality time with his family.

During his time of illness, although completely immobile, Jason loved to watch television with his caretakers and family Jason enjoyed the occasional outing to family and friends, and it was those simple pleasures of Jason's and the simplicity of his joy for life that made him so special.
