

Jason Green

October 2, 1947 - July 21, 2003

Jason Green was born in Baltimore, Maryland on October 2, 1947. He was the eighth child of ten children born to Mamie Viola Penix Green and John Brown Green, Sr., both deceased. Jason completed his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, and graduated from Edmondson High School in 1965. After graduating from high school, he decided to enlist in the United States Army at the age of 19. Upon receiving an honorable discharge as a sergeant from the armed forces at 23 years of age, he became employed at the United States Post Office. While working at the post office Jason also studied at The Maryland Institution of Art. Jason was a great artist, and could draw anything anyone asked him to draw. He later joined the Baltimore City Fire Department and succeeded to the rank of Lieutenant before his health became poor and he made the decision to retire. Jason loved his family especially during the holiday seasons. He also loved sports and was an all-around sports enthusiast especially when it came to football and the Super Bowl. Jason loved his family and his family loved him. Although he remained a bachelor, he had one son with the name of Kenneth. He leaves to cherish his memories: his son, four sisters, Martha Greene, Mirian Gould, Myra McCullough and Melita Woodlon; three brothers, John Jr., James and Jeremiah Green; two brothers-in-law, Don Gould, Sr., Clarence Johnson; three god-daughter, Candice Woodlon, Michelle (Shelly) Gould and Tawyna Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
