“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we loose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Smith's ! I would like to take this time to express my condolences to u all, the family & friends. When we lose a dear loved one in death it breaks the family circle. May knowing that others cares help to ease the sorrow and pain that comes from someone dying. Death can make us think about life a little more seriously. I know the feeling of losing some one from death. The bible gives us many promises to help heal from the effects of the unnatural thing as death. I am happy to know that our heavenly cares for you all and is there to give comfort in all your tribulations as 2 Cor.1:3 say. May these few uplifting thoughts be postive to read. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
