

Jason Scott Willis

June 16, 1987 - April 26, 2011

JASON SCOTT WILLIS, was born June 16, 1987 to Cynthia Willis and the late Gary Meadows in Baltimore, Maryland.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools.

Jason married Timera Denise Robertson in 2008. From this union was born, S'Mari Jae Willis.

He was a loving and devoted husband, father, son and brother who came to the assistance of many who needed him.

Jason accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age at the Pleasant Rock Baptist Church in Baltimore Maryland. As an adult, he re-dedicated his life to Christ even as he had many questions concerning clergy and salvation.

During his lifetime, Jason spent many days and hours helping to prepare food baskets for the needy, sorting and preparing clothing for giveaways, and riding with his mother and siblings on late-night runs to homeless regions to pass out beverages, food, and blankets. He gladly gave of his time to the needy and didn't think enough was done.

While estranged from his spouse, he has spent every possible weekend caring for S'Mari Jae whom he affectionately called his "Princess" or his "Smoobie" he loved her dearly, and they were inseparable.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Cynitha Willis; stepfather, Raymond Gibson, Jr.; his devoted godfather, Mitchell Golden; one adoring sister, Kristin M. Willis two brothers, Justin Johnson and Joshua Johnson; his little princess daughter, S'Mari Jae Willis; wife Timera Robinson Willis; daughter, Leniah Robinson; mother-in-law, Indira McDonald; three aunts, Lenora Clayton, Felecia Allen and Daphine Allen; one devoted uncle, Sterling R. Willis; one loving nephew, Jordan Willis; a host of cousins, special brothers and sisters, dear friends and his Pleasant Rock Church family.
