

Jasper C. Dildy

April 28, 1920 - April 26, 2007

Jasper C. Dildy, son of the late Archibald and Isadora Dildy, was born on April 28, 1920, in North Carolina. He was one of eleven children. He departed this life on April 26, 2007, at Pleasant View Nursing Home. Jasper, aka "Jack", was educated in North Carolina and served in the U.S. Army during WWII. After the service, he lived in Brooklyn, NY and received training as a tailor and worked in that field for many years. He later retired from NYC Transit Authority, where he worked as a subway conductor. He loved his job because it allowed him to interact with the public, and that was his joy. Jack was a scholar, philosopher, and playful joker, and one of the last true gentlemen of his time. Jack married Elma Martin and together they raised five children, Anthony, Jasper Jr., Sheila, Rodney, and Cotia. He was a devoted father and true friend to those who knew him. Due to failing health, Jasper and Elma relocated to Knoxville, Tennessee in 2001. There, they lived with daughter, Cotia and her husband James, and enjoyed reminiscing about the good old days. Jack relocated to Pleasant View Nursing Home in Maryland, in February of 2007. Preceded in death by wife, Elma and son, Rodney. Jack leaves behind: sons, Anthony and Jasper Jr.; loving daughters, Sheila and Cotia; devoted son-in-law, James Harris; grandchildren, Ronald Carter Jr. and Nakeya Martin; great-granddaughters, Amber Carter and Elizabeth Harper; one sister, Harriett Baker; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Edith and Tommy Felton; special niece, Audrey xx; and many more nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I remember seeing him coming from work with his conductors uniform on. He was friends with my dad who was a conductor also.

“ My condolences to you and your family in the passing of your dear loved one. Here are two promises from the Holy Bible that has been very comforting to me. John 5:28,29 which says: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." And 1 Corinthians 15:26 which says: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ The sorrow we feel when we lose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort". We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
