

Jasper Lee Roy

July 18, 1943 - March 8, 2006

JASPER LEE ROY, son of Lillian L. Roy and the late George W. Roy, was born on July 18, 1943 in Bassett, Virginia. He departed this life on March 8, 2006 after a brief illness. Jasper received his education in the Baltimore City Public School system. Early in his life he was self-employed and he owned several trucks. With these trucks he did transporting and delivery of goods for several well known businesses along the East Coast. He later became a self-employed auto mechanic up until the time of his illness. Jasper was friend to everyone he met and most importantly he loved cars. His passion was maintaining and repairing all makes and models of cars. (He loved tinkling with cars and he knew all makes and years of cars.) He also enjoyed attending the annual auto shows and enjoyed teaching various family members how to drive and how to maintain their own cars. Jasper leaves to mourn his mother, Lillian L. Roy, three sisters, Ollie Punnett, Jessie Bland, Nancy Roy-Duckett and one brother, George Roy; one brother-in-law, Theodore Bland; one sister-in-law, Aquanetta Roy, four daughters, Tracy Roy, Rhonda Webb, Alike Lipscomb and Taffy Roy, one son-in-law, David Webb; two step-sons, Andre McDuffie and Anthony Robinson; seven grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends. (He also, had one son, Kevin Roy, who preceded him in death).

“ Hello ! Roy's ! May I express my condolences to you all. When we lose a dear loved one it breaks the circle of life for all. Mr. Jasper was almost 63 years young. Just think what life would be like WHEN we are be able to live forever, our minds can not imagine how long forever is. The bible tell us at Ecc.3:11, that our heavenly father has put time indefinite in our hearts.I can not waite to live forever and I know you all would like to live forever without problems that we all that we all have today in one way or another. May knowing that others care help to help the effects of losing some one dear . My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to the family for your loss. Please find comfort in God's promise of a resurrection. Isaiah 25:8 tells us Jehovah's purpose to swallow up death forever, and to wipe the tears from all faces. Also Rev.21:3,4 highlights the resurrection. May you find comfort in his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
