

Jasper Lee Nesbit

February 10, 1927 - January 12, 2018

Jasper Lee Nesbit was born February 10, 1927 to Willie and Geneva Nesbit. He was educated in the Baltimore School System. After graduation, Jasper enlisted in the U.S. Air Force training as a mechanic. He achieved the rank of Sergeant. After his military career, Jasper joined the Baltimore City Fire Department. He received honors for many heroic acts, serving for more than 30 years before retiring.

Baptized at an early age. Jasper joined the Memorial Baptist Church, serving faithfully as a member of the Male Chorus and Senior Choir. He had a melodious voice and loved playing the harmonica. Being very spiritual, he had a penchant for listening to Gospel music and watching a diverse array of TV ministries. Upon relocating to Richmond, Jasper became a member of the Cedar Street Baptist Church of God.

As a wonderful handyman, Jasper could fix almost anything. He was an avid gardener who loved planting and beautiful flowers. He enjoyed sharing wisdom and thought-provoking conversation with family and friends. Jasper was a devoted husband, loving father, brother, uncle and friend. He never met a stranger, and would help anyone. he will always be lovingly remembered for his kind heart, quick wit and gentle spirit.

Jasper was predeceased by his parents, Willie and Geneva Nesbit, brother,

Edward Nesbit, and two step-children, Carol and James Coleman. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving and devoted wife, Carol C. Nesbit; sons, Gerald Nesbit (Mary Jane), Keith Nesbit; sister, Evelyn Bland; brothers, William Nesbit (Lana) and John Nesbit; sisters-in-law, Michelle Nesbit and Gloria Butler (William); two grandsons, Matthew and David Nesbit; three granddaughters, Katelyn, Kara, and Jordin Nesbit; many step-grandchildren; one great grandson, Cameron David Nesbit; nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.
