

Javan Darnell Wicks

September 22, 1990 - September 19, 2024

During the pre-dawn hours on Thursday, September 19th, 2024, God whispered to JAVAN DARNELL WICKS to come home with Him. Javan's suffering from an unfortunate illness was over and he was given the victory.

Known by many as "Von", he was easygoing and loved laughing and making others do the same. He treasured and deeply loved his three children and called them his "Blessings". Javan loved sports and was a diehard Baltimore Ravens and Orioles fan. Before illness set in, he lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures; spending time with family and friends, watching movies, listening to music and working. Sharing quality time with his children brought him lots of joy!

Baptized at an early age, he was currently a member of Cornerstone Baptist Church of York. Javan was born on September 22, 1990 in San Diego, California. He and his family moved to Baltimore, Maryland and later to York, Pennsylvania. He graduated from West York High School. Javan enjoyed cooking and was great at it; and was employed by several restaurants in the York, Pa. area. He was a dearly loved son, father, nephew, cousin and friend. Cherished memories of Javan will remain in the hearts of those who loved him.

He leaves to mourn their loss: his children, Cassidy Monroe Wicks, Kamdyn

Levi Wicks and Journei Shanelle Wicks; loving parents, Claudette Wicks-Dean and Clyde S. Dean Sr.; stepbrother, Clyde S. Dean Jr.; grandmother, Clara Forby; great aunt, Phyllis Blue; aunts, Denise Pugh, Theresa Holmes, Maria Wicks and Andrea Wicks; uncle, Thurman Pugh; a “special and dear” friend, Brooklyn Dunlap; and a host of other relatives and friends.
