

Javar Kenyon Williams

June 3, 2005 - May 31, 2012

JAVAR KENYON WILLIAMS, was born on June 3, 2005 in Baltimore, Maryland at Johns Hoskins Hospital to James Williams III and Maisha Simmons. After a courageous battle with his illness

Javar gained his heavenly wings on May 31, 2012 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Javar attended Commodore John Rodgers Elementary School in Baltimore City for a short while, and later graduated from kindergarten to first grade at Johnnycake Elementary School. He was christened at New Harvest Ministries under the leadership of Bishop Marcus A. Johnson, Sr. While at New Harvest he joined the Youth Choir and Mime Ministry. Javar was blessed to have an extended family that embraced him; as he brought joy to everyone he came in contact with. Some of his best moments were playing video games and helping out by doing whatever he could. Javar especially enjoyed wearing his Batman costume whenever he accompanied his sister Malaisha to school. Javar never allowed his illness to discourage him and could always be found displaying a positive outlook on life while being around his friends and family. "HE WILL BE GREATLY MISSED BY ALL!"

Javar leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Victor and Maisha Simmons, and James Williams III, three sisters Malaisha Rochester, Naija Robinson and Vasarah Simmons, grandparents, Mary Washington, Lawrence Newby, Karen Simmons-White and James Williams Jr., his godmother

Candice Teagle and a host of relatives and friends.

“ I am so deeply sorry that you lost your sweet little Javar. I know it has to be so heartbreaking; especially when you lose someone who is so young, and my heart goes out to the parents. When things like this happen people wonder, why did my young child have to go through this sickness? There was an account in the Bible about an army officer who had a young daughter who had gotten sick. He, of course, was devastated, so he went to Jesus to ask him to cure his daughter, but before he arrived home she had already died.

At Mark 5:35 it says: While he was yet speaking, some men from the home of the presiding officer of the synagogue came and said: "Your daughter has died! Why bother the teacher any longer? But Jesus, overhearing the word being spoken, said to the presiding officer: Have no fear, only exercise faith. Verse 40-43 says in part: he took along the young child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the young child was. And taking the hand of the young child, he said to her, "Tal'i-tha cumi, which translated means: Maiden, I say to you, "Get up!. And immediately the maiden rose and began walking, for she was twelve years old. And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy.

So this account shows us the compassion and love that Jesus and his Father has for us when we lose a loved one in death. So this is a preview which shows us that one day Jesus is going to bring all of our loved ones back to life as well. Isn't that a most joyful thought knowing that we have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones again?

Jesus promised at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. That time is soon approaching, because the Bible shows that we are living in the last days. Very soon God will bring all wickedness and violence to an end, and after the end of those days he will bring about a peaceful, new world where sickness and death will be no more. 2nd Peter 3:13, Rev 21:3-5, Ps.37:29 I pray for comfort and strength for you and your family and pray that you learn God's wonderful purpose so you can see Javar again. For further information please contact Jehovah's Witnesses and they will be happy to assist you in learning more concerning God's wonderful purpose. Take care family!

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your precious son Javar. As a mother myself, my heart aches for you. I hope that you can find a measure of comfort in the Bible's promise of a resurrection found at John 5:29,29. We can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones in a world without sickness and death. (Rev.21:3,4) Sincerely, Jennifer

“ The first time I met Javar was Sep 9, 2011 when him and my daughter was admitted in the hospital around the same time. When I saw how he was just running around playing like he wasn't even sick, he gave me hope. During the times we saw him in the clinic he was always so polite and just a wonderful little man. He will be truly missed. My sympathy goes out to his family and friends. His parents lost a son and this world lost a wonderful kid. Rest in peace Javar.
