“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

I want to express my blessings and prayers to my niece Tyra. I am so sorry for the lost of my great nephew. I ask God to heal her heart and fill it with all the wonderful memories that she had as a mother. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. May God help my niece to flourish the memories to help sustain her from day to day. I love my family and know that what the enemy intended for our harm, that God will work it out for our good some day. May the blood of Jesus cover us all. Apply the blood of Jesus daily to your life. But the blood on your doorposts will serve as a sign, marking the houses where you are staying. When I see the blood, I will pass over you. This plague of death will not touch you when I strike the land. Exodus 12:13
