“ I would like to convey my condolences for your loss. The Bible teaches about a future time when those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection (Joohn5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest and heartfelt condolences for your loss. Losing a precious family member is truly the most saddest thing that we go through in life, but know this dear ones, that this was never God's purpose for us to die in the first place. This is why he promises at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." All of the sorrow and pain of this life will soon be gone forever. Jehovah also makes this wonderful promise at Isaiah 65:17, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." One day we will have the joyful opportunity to be reunited with our dear loved ones again. John 5:28,29 promises that the dead will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. May you find much strength and joy in God's wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
