“ Dear Family. I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear Baby Jayden. The Bible foretells a time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:4). When our loved ones die, we mourn. Jesus told his disciples "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest." He was at rest in death, as though in a deep sleep. (John 11:11-14) Jehovah God created us with the desire to live forever. We die is because of Adam's sinful condition as well as death was passed on to all of his descendants. (Rom 5:12) That sin is like a terrible inherited disease from which no one can escape. Its consequence, death, is a curse. Death is an enemy, not a friend. (1Cor 15:26) How grateful we can be that Jehovah God provided the ransom to rescue us from this dreadful enemy through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ! Read these scriptures anytime you think of Jayden; may they console you, because as long as you stay close to God and serve him wholeheartedly, you will see Jayden in the Earthly Paradise! (Psalm 37:29; Rev 21:3,4).

“ Each week I looked forward to hearing about little Jayden's progress. I know how much he is loved by his mother who was so devoted. I also know how much his grandmother and other family members were pulling for him. Through it all, he was a trooper. There will be nothing but memories of love when I think of Jayden. I am, and will continue to pray for your family that you may take comfort in our heavenly father's loving arms. Know that very soon death will be a thing of the past. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8

“ I would like to extend my sincerest apologies for your loss. Losing a loved one is no doubt one of the most tragic things one can experience. Contrary to popular opinion death is NOT a natural thing. God never intended us to grow old, get sick and die. Instead, he intended us to live forever in a beautiful earthly paradise. The Bible gives us encouragement and hope that we CAN see our dead loved ones again. John 5:28 says: “do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Also Acts 24: 15 says: “and I have hope toward God, that there is going to be a RESURRECTION of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” Yes, the Bible promises us that those loved ones who have died, we shall see them again. Not only that, but there will be no more tears, pain and sorrow. Revelation 21: 4 assures us: And God will wipe every tear from their eye and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Yes, indeed that is something to look forward to.
