

Jayme Savon Street

June 9, 1994 - March 9, 2014

Jayme Savon Street was born in Richmond, VA on June 9, 1994 to Shireese Street and the late Warren Lewis, Jayme was a joyful and caring young man who gave his life to Christ on August 12, 2000, at the age of 6 years old. He was a member of Ebenezer Baptist Church, and served as drummer and usher at an early age. As a graduate of New Kent High School, he was active in football.

Jayme was always willing to help those in need. He was skillful in a myriad of labor intensive tasks. He was employed at McDonalds in Williamsburg, VA. He attended Job Corps in Charleston, West Virginia and hoped to begin a career in the HVAC field.

Jayme was well loved by everyone, and his main goal was to make you laugh and brighten your day with his smile.

Jayme leaves to cherish loving memories his mother Shireese Street, grandparents William and Shirley Street, who reared him, and Alfreda Lewis; a stepmother Monick Lewis, a godmother & auntie Carleen Harris, god-grandparents James and Clara Simmons, two brothers, Donnell Allen and Deshaun Jones, one sister LaShaundra Jones; a godbrother, Reginald Jackson; two godsisters, La`Mia Jones and Adrienne Goodlet; three great-great uncles, Henry Christian (Louise), Charles Christian (Alease), and Cappy

Christian(Mildred);four great uncles;Lilton"Ed" Harris,Robert Atkins,Jr.
(Kathy),Shawn Harris(Gwen),and Jonathan"Wayne" Street(Taivia);five great aunts,Bettie Jefferson,Marsha Phillips,Alberta Atkins,Juanita Street,Debbie Christian,a aunt Rochelle Lewis;and a host of other devoted friends and relatives.

“ Jayme, Missing you on this 10 year anniversary. A day this Granny will never forget. I miss your smile, your visits and the way you said Grandma. You are the only one that could put a handle on that title. To have you visit as you did so often we be "Awesome" but I know that you and your Dad are our angels now. I think of you often and miss you everyday but the love for you never stops it keeps on going. Grandma Freda

“ Eight years later and I can still hear you calling Grandma with the loudest voice ever. To have you here would be so much better but God has you in His arms what better place to be. I guess all of you to include the latest family member are happy and free now. So grateful for you my baby and miss you so much. Rest on, rest on. Love, Grandma

“ My, my Jayme it has been seven years and I miss you dearly. I cannot explain the pain but I am rejoicing knowing that you are in Heaven and smiling to the fullest with those around you that love you as much as we all do down here. We think of you and miss you dearly. Grandma as you would hollow in the malls.

“ Jayme my joyful grandson. Chris is there or on his way to you, Warren and Roger along with all that have gone on before. I know you all have a lot to talk about so don't laugh to hard. I am missing you and your picking on me so much but know that I always think of you and miss you so much my dear. Don't you all have to much fun because Grandma Ruby will have to calm you down. The pain does not go away from not having you all here but God knows best when he called you all home. Love, Grandma Freda

“ Dear Family,

*May the peace that only God can provide be of comfort to you at this time. Losing a dear loved one is never easy. To help during this difficult time please rely on our heavenly father Jehovah and his loving son Jesus Christ. There will be a time when death and pain will be obliterated and never exist again. “ Our family would like to express condolences to The Street Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises our dear loved ones a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of the loss of your dear young Jayme. This was never what Our Heavenly Father intended for him, nor any of mankind. Death really is unnatural, which is why it so is unbearably painful. Please take comfort in the knowledge that God has already made provision to awaken him from sleep, soon. This is no mere dream. In The Bible there are nine eye-witnessed accounts of people who died and were brought back to life, Jesus being one of these (Mark 5:38-43). These events were documented in Gods' Word for a reason...these gave a fore gleam of a future Resurrection on a grand scale. Jesus confirms this wonderful hope for Jayme at John 5:28-29 were it reads in part,..."the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out...". The Earth God promises, will be restored to the beautiful Paradise it once was (Psalms 37:9-11,29). Grief, sickness and death will be eliminated forever (Isaiah 33:24, Rev. 21:4). This is what Jayme will awaken to. May this wonderful, very real hope, and your treasured memories of his life give you a measure of peace, and sooth some of the heartache you must certainly be experiencing. Soon you can welcome him back, and put your arms around him once again. These are Gods' Words, and He is not like us, He always keeps His promises! (Titus 1:2). My sincerest condolences, Mrs. D. Ward Detroit Michigan (delaineward2020@gmail.com) For comforting information on how to deal with the death of a loved one visit www.jw.org
