

Jaynori S. Turner

February 19, 1985 - February 11, 2002

Lord, for your faithful people life is changed, not ended. Death is not an ending, but a beginning of a new life God has prepared for us. Thus, on Monday, February 11, 2002, our beloved Jaynori began his new life. Jaynori S. Turner, son Lawnda and Daryl, was born on February 19, 1985. He departed this life suddenly on February 11, 2002. Jaynori was born and raised in the city of Baltimore. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and the New Foundation Vocational School. Jaynori was affectionately known by his family as "Jay" and by his friends as "Jay Rock". He was a very friendly and outgoing person. He loved his family very much and he also had a love for basketball, video games and drawing. He leaves to mourn: his loving mother and father, Lawanda and Daryl; his two grandmothers, Martha White and Emma Roberts; grandfather, Evander Dargan; two sisters, Jasmine and Bria; one brother, Ja-Juan; three aunts, "Nettie," Lisa and Tammy; a special cousin, Alesha; a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. A very heart-breaking thought, But God knows best for our hearts; He giveth life, He taketh it away, For we know neither the hour, the minute, or the day. We ask Him for strength, guidance and love, For no man knows any better than He from above; So in our hours of sorrow and grief, He is the one who gives us strength, guidance and relief. And through His strength, guidance and love, we can realize, death is not death; But a long sleep of love, May he rest in peace. Lovingly submitted, The Family

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
