

Jean Ann Bey

June 30, 1931 - March 19, 2007

Jean Ann Bey, daughter of the late Richard and Catherine Hurley was born June 30, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 19, 2007 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Carver Vocational High School. She was employed for over thirty years with the State of Maryland at Crownsville State Hospital. Ann was a devoted sister, aunt and friend. She was generous, loving, and accepted people for who they were. Ann had a great love for children. She adopted the late Stacey McClain at birth and unselfishly provided day care for many other children. Because of Ann's love for children, she opened her home to Darrell after the passing of his grandmother and continued to care for him until her health declined. We will truly miss the good times spent with her and most of all her humor. She leaves to mourn a sister, Jane Hurley, a brother Richard Hurley Jr.; an uncle Reginald Combs, an aunt Listina Scribner; two nephews Kevin McLamb, Sr. and Eric Hurley; two nieces, April and Andrea Hurley; a sister-in-law Carol Hurley, a niece-in-law Joyce McLamb; two great nephews and their wives, Luther and Renee Jones; Kevin and Victoria McLamb; two devoted friends Delores Scott and Peggy Marpus; and a host of other relatives and friends. She was someone we could talk to, someone we could never replace. She was someone we could laugh with until tears rolled down our face. She was someone we could turn to when we needed a helping hand. She was someone we could count on to give advice and understand. She was someone we could sit with and not say a word. She was someone we could trust to keep each secret she heard

She was someone we thought more of as each year came to an end That someone was Ann,
your love endured to the end

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 says- "There is going to be a resurrection." For many this will take place on a paradise earth. (See Luke 23:43, Matthew 5:5 and 2 Peter 3:13) May you receive much comfort from these promises and draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ. “ I would like to send my condolences to Jean Bey, love ones. After reading the poem on her obituary. I can tell that she had a love for people. In the Bible it tells us that God too, love mankind. That is why he gives us hope and promises. One of his promises is to do away with death. Isaiah 25:8 "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..." Jehovah cannot lie.--Hebrew 6:18 One day real soon that promise will come true.###imported-begin##D.Kennedy###imported-end##

“ DEAR FAMILY, DURING THIS DIFFICULT TIME OF COPING WITH YOUR LOSS, MAY YOU FIND COMFORT FROM GOD'S WORD THE BIBLE. SOON THE TIME WILL COME WHEN OUR ENEMY DEATH WILL BE GONE FOREVER.
