“ I send my heartfelt condolences to you at this difficult time. Keep trusting in our heavenly father, because he is always there for us when we go through trial, and he comforts us and helps us to endure. Know that he has a wonderful purpose to end all sickness and death forever, and to reunite us with our loved ones who have died. John 5:28,29 1st Cor 15:26. One day he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Rev 21:3-5 May you be comforted by this wonderful hope, and may your precious memories of Jean help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ to my dear and loving family, all of jean's loved ones, i give my heartfelt love and comfort at this most horrible time for all of us who have suffered this tremendous loss. jean was the longest and most trusted and endeared friend that i have ever had in my lifetime. the loss for me is great, as it is with you. there is so much that i want to say to you but no amount of words could ever compensate for our loss!!! kip and craig, there is no one alive who knew your mom the way that i did. our experiences together will live on as long as i am alive. so many, many memories! too many to recount. i loved your mom dearly and although religion gave us different paths, it never divided our hearts, they were cemented with loving care. i miss her so much! although i have all this emotion, at the foundation of it all is my bible based hope of seeing your mom again and right here on a cleansed, paradise earth with no more sickness or death, no more crime or violence, no more injustice, homelessness or hunger. all of these promises are given in God's own word, the bible. my heart is so full, there is so much i want to say, but continuing on i'll say: read these scriptures and pay more than the usual attention to the verses, because God's own word says that He can't lie, all that He says will come true. acts 24:15, john 11:25, 5:28,29 revelation 21:3,4 psalms 37:9-11,29 isaiah 35:5,6 isaiah 33:24, and psalms 72:12-14,16 shows the kind of God He is. please find comfort in these scriptures as i have and the hope of seeing your mom and my dear friend again. all that God is asking from you is obedience now and you will see her then. i would be so overjoyed to show you and anyone else who wants to know, what God requires for everlasting life, right here a a paradise earth. i love you all so much. i'm here for you! just give me a call. kathryn##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ A limb has fallen from the tree I keep hearing a voice say, Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life lived, How God made me strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you through. My soul is at rest, Continue traditions, no matter how small, Go on with life, be encouraged and don't ever give up Continue to stand tall. lovingly submitted, The sisters and brothers##imported-begin##the sisters and brothers##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Jean is my sister Carolyn's oldest and dearest friend. She is one of the nicest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I can remember when the two of them attended Carver High School. Jean was the first Black woman to work in the offices of Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Can you imagine having such a huge responsibility? I can't. Yet, Jean handled it with style and with grace and in doing so she paved the way for so many Black women in Baltimore and around this country. This is part of her legacy. You all must be so very proud.###imported-begin##Antionella Elliott###imported-end##
