“ Mother... "Jean Beckett"!... You left me here without you. I really don't know why God felt that was okay. For me, it was so sudden and unexpected. You were my "Energizer Bunny". I thought we had more birthdays to celebrate. I had already started planning for your 97th birthday celebration! Now I have to live the remainder of my life's journey without you and I have no idea what that will look like! I can only say that I will work hard to be a "good steward" over all that you instilled in me. I will always cherish those sweet kissing we shared. I wish I could have more! If at least part of your spirit remains with me, I pray that you please keep me straight and keep me protected from harm. I love you always and forever! >Jeannette
