

Jean Butcher

November 26, 1938 - August 12, 2006

JEAN BUTCHER, daughter of the late London and Glennie Brooks, was born on December 26, 1938. Jean passed away peacefully on August 12, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was employed with the City of Baltimore as a Chef and also worked as a part-time child care provider. This brought Jean a lot of joy because she enjoyed working with small children. Jean retired in 1993. Jean married the late, Edward Butcher in September 1962. She gave birth to six children; one daughter, Victoria N. Caruth, and five sons, Eugene, Edward and the late Marlo, Ernest and Kevin D. Butcher, Jean was a loving and devoted wife and mother. She spent much of her time caring for others and making sure that everyone was alright. Jean was a strong-willed person whom provided comfort for all of her family members and friends at all times. Her most joyful moments were spending time with her children. She really enjoyed dancing and listening to music. She is well known for her love of "Good Eatin'" mainly sweets and chicken. She was known for being willing to give her last to anyone in need. We will all miss the comfort that she was always so willing to provide to her family and friends. At her best, she was truly Love, and we will all miss her dearly. We look forward to greeting her in the paradise that Jehovah promises. Jean dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication by water baptism on March 3, 1983. She entered the full-time service, as a regular pioneer on September 1, 1996, and continued until her health deteriorated to the point that she could no longer engage in this privilege of service. Nevertheless, she faithfully continued to preach to and teach others about the wonderful good news from God's Word the Bible. One of her favorite scriptures can be found at Revelations 21:3,4. She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Victoria Caruth; two sons, Eugene and Edward Butcher; one son-in-law, Dexter Caruth; two sisters, Doris Freeland and Mary Daughtery; one brother-in-law, Lawrence Daughtery; eight grandchildren, Anitria Bullock, Katrina Crutch, Carlton Crutch, Kelly Butcher, Mario Butcher, Iesha Butcher, Tracy Butcher, and Qadir Butcher; five great-grandchildren, Torrence Owens, Ajonté Bullock, Kyrel Crutch, & Amya Alexandria Bullock. Jean also held a host of nieces and nephews very dear to her heart along with the brothers and sisters and other friends. Jean had three sons, Marlo Ernest and Kevin D. Butcher; one sister, Julia and two brothers, London and William Brooks who all preceded her in death.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Sister Butcher: My sincere condolences to you all. Sister Butcher was a sweetheart. She was a kind loving person who knew everyone in the field service territory and when she was ill they truly asked about her on a regular basis. Her love and faith for Jehovah was so strong that it is worth imitating. She will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family of Sis Butcher, I offer my sincere sympathy. Sis Butcher was not only my spiritual sister but my friend and I too will miss her very much. How fortunate we are to have the wonderful promise of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) Just knowing that we all have the possibility of seeing her again provides me with comfort and can be a source of comfort for you also. Anyone who knew Sis Butcher knew she loved and trusted in Jehovah and Jehovah offers you the opportunity to find out why. Take advantage of the wonderful gift he's given us. Talk to the friends. Find out why Jehovah was Sis Butcher's friend.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My most sincere sympathy to the family of my sister Butcher. Although I didn't have the privilage of knowing her personally, I share the same deep love of Jehovah, and I look forward to meeting her in God's paradise. It's so sad when we have to say goodbye to our precious loved ones, but it's so comforting to know that death is likened to a deep sleep, and we know our loved ones are not suffering anywhere. We are so blessed to have the hope of the ressurection, the only remedy for death, and to know that our dear sister Butcher will hear the voice of the son of God and come out of the memorial tombs. John5:28,29. I pray that our loving father Jehovah sustain you, and bring joy to your heart as you reflect on his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
