“ God knows Best
An angel came and whispered in my ear, Jean Listen to my heavenly father’s command ,
He said never be afraid of death ,
There will always be some things about this life we are are not meant to understand Come go with me
take my hand,
Jesus has prepared a special place, in heaven floating on a beautiful white cloud, my voice speaks aloud echoing “baby don’t worry or cry sad tears, be happy
my spirit is still here” reach deep down in your heart , and feel my loving embrace I’ve finished the race,
The pace wasn’t always smooth Remember when the lord is at work leave him alone .
the devil is always busy trying to destroy,
What is already set in stone ,ENGRAVED “ I’m on my way home”
This is not the end of our time together.
My family and friends,
I have entered into eternal rest,
what a blessing
What a lesson
I learned early,
Not to question his WILL
GOD knows best!

This poem is written in loving memory of Jean Cuthbertson McQuinn, my dear cousin I ask the lord to give our family strength to endure during this difficult time . You’re our angel Rest in peace!
