

Jean E. Brooks

November 8, 1933 - May 9, 2003

“We never thought when we awoke that morning, the sorrow that the day would bring. The blow was sudden, but reality was clear, That we had just parted with one so dear.” Jean Elizabeth Brooks, affectionately known as “George,” daughter of the late William and Bertha Reed, was born in Baltimore, Maryland. Jean received Christ at an early age and joined the Ebenezer Baptist Church. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools and furthered her education at Dunbar High School. Jean was united in Holy Matrimony on December 25, 1957 to Abraham Brooks Jr. and from this union three sons, (the late Ronald Brooks), Rodney and Steven Brooks were born. She worked for many years at the Bolton Hill Nursing Home and Broadway Services. The job she enjoyed the most was working with young children at the early child care center at Southwestern High School. Jean had a zest for life. She made friends wherever she went. She was always pleasant, outgoing, enthusiastic and willing to jump in and assist when and wherever she was needed. On Friday, May 9, 2003, just before dawn, our beloved Jean Elizabeth Brooks departed this life and set sail for glory to meet with her Maker, Healer and Keeper, the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She leaves to cherish fond memories: a loving husband, Abraham Brooks; two sons, Rodney A. Brooks and Steven A. Brooks; two daughters-in-law, Cynthia R. Brooks and Linda Owens; one grandson, Rodney C. Brooks; three granddaughters, Lawanda Brooks, Natisha Brooks and Tyeshia Brooks; a brother-in-law, Donald E. Mack; sister-in-law, Sarah Chambers; and a host of nieces, nephews and devoted friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Jean E. Brooks

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Jean E. Brooks

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences to the family. Our family finds much comfort and solace from the Bible. Please note John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." It is my desire that you find as much comfort as we have in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Unfortunately, I was unable to attend the services. However, I wanted to take this opportunity to express my deepest sympathy in this time of bereavement. May the Creator bless you during this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Tashi Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##Brenda Royster & The Thornton Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM