

Jean F. Fooks

June 30, 1938 - March 12, 2007

Jean Frances Fooks was born on June 30, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Samuel McCall and the late Helen Rowles. She was preceded in death by her brother, Walter Abrams. She was married for over twenty-five years to and preceded in death by her husband, Cornelius Fooks. She attended Baltimore City public schools. Jean was a warm, compassionate woman and a great lover of life. Many will mourn her passing, as she touched the lives of all who knew her. Her true passion and the love of her life were her sons. She was a truly devoted and understanding mother. On Tuesday, March 13, 2007 at the age of sixty-eight, Jean departed from this life at Maryland General Hospital after a very brief illness. Jean leaves to cherish her memory: her four sons, Steven, Bryan, Lawrence and Charles W. Campbell, Jr.; aunt, Carolyn and uncle, Paul Stanley; three daughters-in-law, four great-grandchildren, five grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews and innumerable friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible lovingly promises the hope of our dead loved ones returning to life on a trouble-free paradise earth. (John 5:21,28,29; Matthew 5:5; Luke 23:43) May you receive much comfort and strength from the Author of these loving promises Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Fooks, I offer my sincere sympathy. Death certainly does bring so much sorrow to our hearts. The pain can be so overwhelming. Almighty God cares deeply about what you are going through, and he promises to rid the world of the enemies of sickness and death; and to bring to life those who have already died. Daniel 12:2 lets us know that there are many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. Yes family, Jehovah God promises to restore life back to our loved ones, and they will live everlastingly in a peaceful paradise earth that he has promises. 2nd Peter 3:13 speaks of a new earth in which righteousness will dwell. Also Isaiah 25:8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' Please use the bible to bring comfort and hope to your hearts, because it contains many wonderful promises that our loving heavenly father will most truly carry out. His word never fails.
