

Ms. Jean Keys Johnson

July 20, 1946 - June 5, 2019

JEAN KEYS JOHNSON was born on July 20, 1946 to the late Aaron and Susie Mae Keys in Greenwood, Mississippi. She departed this life on June 5, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

Jean was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. Jean accepted Christ early on in her life at St. Paul Baptist Church in Baltimore.

Jean was a dedicated professional child care provider for more than thirty years.

Jean married Robert Warren Boyd in 1963; and out of this union two loving daughters were born, Rhoda and Jeanette (who preceded her in death on May 20, 1990).

In this life, Jean gave all of herself to her family and friends whom she loved, laughed, partied and socialized with. To know her was to absolutely "Love" her. She made any situation no matter good or bad, into a reason to celebrate. She adored her daughters, grandsons, and four great-grandchildren who called her "GG." Jean loved her "oldies but goodies" and her famous cocktails.

Jean loved and lived this life to the fullest. In her words, "This life don't owe me nothing." She was known for her fashion, her love for food, style and love of people.

Jean will be deeply missed and leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Rhoda Lisa Gary and son-in-law, Everett Gary; a lifelong companion, Therman Phillips; two grandsons, Marcus (Wanda) and Marquis (Lakeisha); four great-grandchildren, Marquis Jr., Marcus Jr., Courtni and Mahirah; four sisters, Lettie, Louise, Charlene, and Romell; one special aunt, Mary.

Jean had now joined her father Aaron, mother Susie Mae, daughter Jeanette (poo-Poo) and her four brothers in heaven.

Jean had a special love and appreciation for her friends and neighbors, as well as a host of other family, friends, and relatives.

“ Cousin Jean, this is like a bad dream to awaken and know that you are not here. To hear your voice, to hear you telling me how everyone is doing, to tell me that you are having a cookout or going out for the weekend to just enjoy life. To hear you say you ans Angie should come on to Baltimore we are going to have a wonderful time. I know that you loved your Daughter Lisa all of your family especially your grandkids and great grandkids. I miss you now and forever more. God needed a party, event plainer that have special qualifications a angel like you. Jean you are once in a lifetime... you will always be in my heart and mind Love you Cousin Jean.
