

Jean V. Martin

January 11, 1947 - November 14, 2019

Jean Victoria Martin was born on January 11, 1947 to the late Henry and Hallie Ollie in the City of Baltimore, Maryland. She peacefully passed away on November 14, 2019 at St. Agnes Hospital.

Jean attended church and school in Howard County and in Baltimore City. She graduated from Frederick Douglas High School. Upon graduation of high school, she went to work for the Social Security Administration.

She briefly left the Social Security Administration and worked for WBFF TV for a short time before returning to SSA from which she retired after thirty-one years of service.

Jean married Jerome C. Martin and out of that union two children were born Craig J. Martin (son) and Dionne V. Martin (daughter).

She loved to read, watch news programs and eat crabs. One of her favorite pastimes was to sit back, relax and enjoy her chocolate cupcakes and strawberry ice cream.

She loved spending time with family and friends, and most of all with her granddaughter, LaShai, whom she loved dearly.

Jen leaves to mourn: her son, Craig, and daughter-in-law, Pamela; her daughter, Dionne; her granddaughter, LaShai Thomas; stepgrandson, Kenyon Boykins; sister, Elaine White; two brothers, Louis Ollie and Melvin Ollie; two sisters-in-law, Ira Ollie and Mary Ollie; and a host of other relatives and friends.
