“ Although many years have passed since I last saw your sister, I still remember her warm smile, laughter, and kind words of encouragement. Money, your family was my second family. There is absolutely no doubt, Jean and your mother are resting in the presence of the Lord. I am blessed to have been welcomed in your home for many many years. Keep the faith my brother. Your Best Friend for Life! Terry

“ Sister In-Law Poem

Fate smiled upon me the day that you became my sister in-law. From the very beginning, I felt at home in your presence and I knew in my heart that the two of us would grow closer through the years.

Now, as I look back in-time, I am reminded of just how much we have shared, and I am grateful that I was BLESSED with a sister in-law whose warmth, thoughtfulness, and sense of compassion, served to make my days brighter.

My sorrows more bearable and my life richer-in so many ways. For this, I feel fortunate beyond measure.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same but as GOD calls us one-by-one, our chain will be linked again.

Love you dearly my Sweet, Lovable Sister- Erica Hill
