

Jean Carol Quarles

March 30, 1947 - May 20, 2019

Jean Carol Quarles, 72, of Richmond, departed this life Monday, May 20, 2019. Jean was born to the late James and Mary Hubbard in Richmond, Virginia March 30, 1947. She was the youngest daughter of their five children.

Jean grew up in Church Hill. She was a graduate of Armstrong High School. She started her walk with God at Good Shepard Baptist Church. Later in life, she joined Second Baptist Church.

For 32 years, Jean was a devoted Claims Clerk for the Virginia Employment Commission. Working at Puritan Cleaners, Jean met William the love of her life. She used to joke with him saying, "I hope you drive that truck better than you drive that cart." In 1975, they eloped and were married in Atlanta, Georgia. From that union they raised a beautiful blended family.

Jean had a smile that just made people feel good. She always enjoyed visits with family and friends. She enjoyed fishing, traveling, loved reading restaurant reviews and trying new restaurants, especially going to Salisbury, Maryland for the crab feasts. She loved cooking. Her favorite dish was macaroni and cheese with tomato. Many times, family and friends requested her famous barbecue, as well as co-workers asking her

“when are you going to bake us another cake?”

Jean was preceded in death by her four brothers, Linwood, William and Thomas Hubbard, and Bobby Green; also her sister Barbara Carter.

She leaves to cherish precious memories a loving and devoted husband, William Quarles; daughter, Janelle Hubbard; sons, Sean (Monique Cornish), Michael, and Walker Quarles; three grandsons, Donnell, Sean and Michael Quarles; sister-in-law, Rosa Quarles; nieces, Crystal Stewart and Adrienne Quarles-Smith; nephews, Kendall, Carrada, Xavier Stewart and Warren Hubbard; uncle, Richard Green (Audrey); aunt, Louise Saunders (Aaron); devoted friend, Linda Dunn; and a host of other relatives, co-workers and caring friends.
