

Jean L. Robinson

August 4, 1943 - May 14, 2014

As sure as we are born into this world we bring joy and happiness in our homes to parents, family and friends. We learn from that very moment how to love and form relationships that will last for a lifetime. Therefore, we leave this earth, in death we leave behind memories that our loved ones will cherish. As in all human beings this journey consists of birth, life and death. Our God rules and controls our destiny. It is His choice when we are to be born and when we die. It is our decision to choose how we live; but it is God's decision as to how we die. This is how it was for JEAN L. ROBINSON, the daughter of Ethel Robinson and the late John H. Robinson, born on August 4, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. The most important thing about Jean is at an early age she received Christ in her life and joined Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church. Jean graduated from Douglass High School in 1961. Her employment started immediately at London Fog. She was also employed with General Motors and she retired from Carr Lowery Glass Company. To each of us, God gives a special talent, and Jean was known as a "dynamic cook" and a "great baker." Her variety of cakes and turkeys traveled around the State of Maryland and left an impact on all who tasted them. Jean's other talent was a clothing designer. She loved to sew. Jean now has a new robe not made by hand but by God. On May 14, 2014, Jean looked at her daughter, Stacy, winked and smiled as if to say it's alright. She then took her last breath and went home to be with her Lord and Savior. Jean L. Robinson leaves to cherish her memory and to rejoice at her entry into eternal life: her devoted daughter, Stacy R.

Robinson; devoted son, Wayne C. (Denise) Holland; her mother, Mrs. Ethel Robinson; brother, Freddie Robinson; two sisters, Odessa Potillo (Edwin) and Rita Robinson; three grandchildren, Wayne, Keyona and Imani; six great-grandchildren, Larry, Kaiwan, Karon, Lamont, Zechariah and Tationna. She also leaves to cherish her memory a host of nieces, nephew, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Jean L. Robinson:
I wanted to write to try and give you some comfort since reading about you losing your loved one in death. Death is such a painful event. The reason is because we were never meant to die anyway. But God is going to do away with death. The bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that 'the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing.' So it reminds us that death is an enemy. Also that God is going to bring about the fulfillment of Revelation 21:4. That scripture says 'there will be no more death, sickness, pain, mourning nor outcry'. It says these former things will have passed away, What a wonderful promise. So when we see our loved ones again we will never have to lose them again. Titus 1:2 says God cannot lie so we can rest assure these things will happen. Well I do hope these scriptures have brought you comfort. If you have any questions please feel free to e-mail me.
