

Jeanette Alston

April 29, 1947 - March 17, 2008

JEANETTE ALTSTON, the daughter of the late Roy Witherspoon and Beulah Ladson, was born April 29, 1947 in Shulerville, S.C. She departed this life on March 17, 2008 after she became ill. She attended Jamestown Elementary School and graduated from Russellville High School in St. Stevens, S.C. Jeanette moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1966. She was employed at Maryland General Hospital for forty-two years of service. In August 1972 Jeanette married Harold L. Alston and of this union, two children were born, Darrell and Leonardo. She joined Christ United Methodist Church family in the late 1990's Jeanette was a people person and loved entertaining and cooking for her family. On Sunday, the family knew where to come for a meal, especially when they didn't feel cooking. She will truly be missed. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Harold Alston; two sons, Darrell and Leonardo; step daughter, Jada; brother, Clarence (brother Leroy Ladson and sister Elizabeth Prioleau preceded her in death); sister-in-law, Flora Ladson; daughter-in-law, Deanna Alston; seven grandchildren, Darrell, Alexis, D'Von, Darius, Kevin (K.J.) and Maya; two godchildren, Jamie and Andre; an adopted mother, Lucille Morris; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and friends.

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere sympathy in your recent difficult time of life. Death breaks the circle of life when it comes and is truly our enemy and will come to an end as the bible say at 1 Cor. 15:26. It will be a grand time to see our loved one as Jesus said at John 5:28 when he call. I am looking forward to that coming. May all the many precious and happy fun times spent with Ms. Jeanetta support you all in the times ahead.##imported-begin##lillian. C##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. There are many thoughts and feelings that run through our minds at a time like this, but one thought that we should keep in front of our minds is God's thoughts and feelings about the things we suffer. The Bible tells us that God yearns for the time when he will give his Son the authority to awaken all who have fallen asleep in death. (Job 14:14, 15, John 5:28, 29) What a comforting thought to reflect on. Not only is there going to be a future resurrection, but Jehovah God longs for opportunity to bring our loved ones back to life; right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, Luke 23:43) Please take comfort in the wonderful promises recorded in God's word. They are certain to come true. And as we await their fulfillment reflecting on them can help us through these last troublesome days of this system of things.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. Losing a loved one in death is truly a devastating thing for a family to have to endure. Please keep in mind that this was never God's purpose. He is the source of all life, and he hates death. That is why at 1st Cor 15:26 he makes this promise: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." So he views death as our enemy, and according to Isaiah 25,8 he will one day swallow up death forever." May it comfort you to know that Jehovah has wonderful things in store for those who love and serve him faithfully. All of the pain we go through in this life will even be forgotten, because Isaiah 65:17 promises: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be brought to mind; neither will they come up into the heart. May the God of all comfort continue to be with you at this time. 2nd Cor 1:3,4##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##
