

Jeanette Chew

January 11, 1944 - June 22, 2020

Jeanette Chew was born on January 11, 1944 in Alvin, South Carolina. She departed her life on Monday, June 22, 2020 at the age of 76, after a short illness peacefully.

As a pre-teen, her family migrated from South Carolina to Baltimore, Maryland where she was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Jeanette went on to work for an Advertising Company where she enjoyed doing Secretarial work. She later found a more suitable roll with Broadway Services where she retired after 20 years of dedicated services. After retirement Jeanette extended her services to the voting Board of Elections for many years.

Jeanette's true passion was cooking and baking for her family and friends. She had many great dishes from Fried Chicken, Macaroni and Cheese, Collard Greens, Sweet Potato Pies and Yellow Cake w/Chocolate Icing and let's not forget the Hog Mogs and Chitterlings. For her grands and the neighborhood children she made candy apples, frozen cups and bags of penny candy. She spent many weekends selling out of her homemade baked goods at the 32nd Street Farmers Market. She was an extremely talented seamstress from making clothes for her children to full size blankets and quilts for the family.

Jeanette loved her Bingo; she was famous for her side tote bag and several sets of colorful bingo markers at Fullerton Bingo. She loved spending quality time with her siblings and traveling to visit her extended family in Philadelphia. Jeanette was not only devoted to just her family, she was a mother to all that knew her. She was a devoted wife to her husband, Lee Chew Sr for 62 years. Jeanette Chew is preceded in death by: Ella Lampkin (Grandmother), Dollie and Ike Alston (Parents), Richard Chew (Son).

She leaves to cherish her memories: husband, Lee Chew, Sr.; son, Lee Chew, Jr.; daughters, Gladys Williams, Gwendolyn Chew, Sandra Bentley; grandsons, Danta Gibson and Robert Brooks, Jr.; granddaughters, Cornelius Moore, Sharna Brooks, Monique Bentley and Lisa Williams; and 7 great-grandchildren, sisters, Lena Thompson, Geraldine Neverson and Leola Sterrette; brothers, Harold Alston and Ike Alston; and a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.

Some of my earliest memories are of having sleepovers with my cousins and my Aunt Jeanette pulling out the big King Syrup can for breakfast and having cold milk. Thank you for the fond memories. Peace be with you.

Love, Shirlette
