September 19, 1945 - October 18, 2002

Jeanette Davis Thomas, daughter of Ernest and Elreda Davis, was born on September 19, 1945 in Clarendon County, South Carolina. She departed this life on October 18, 2002. Jeanette was united in marriage to Roy Clarence Thomas. Her husband preceded her in death in January 1985. She received her education at Eastern High School in Baltimore. At the age of nineteen, she was employed by Baltimore City public schools. Jeanette retired after thirty of service. She loved working for the schools. She was a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant Church and Ministries. Jeanette really enjoyed watching the soaps on television. She liked to discuss politics. Jeanette was a very caring person to her family. She always took special pride with her siblings in introducing herself as “ the oldest.” She wore the title well because she always did her very best to look out for her siblings. Jeanette leaves to mourn: her parents, Ernest and Elder Davis; three brothers, Ernest Davis Jr., Tyrone Chesseborough and Carl Davis; four sisters, Runette Davis, Helen, Barbara Rodgers and Bonnie Magwood; two brothers-in-law, Milton Magwood and Cephus Rodgers; one sister-in-law, Rochelle Davis; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, a long time friend, Robert Jackson; and a host of other relatives and friends.
