“ To the family of Jeanette Yvonne-Comer Day:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). What is "HE's" name...not title? Psalm 83:18 gives the answer

“ To the family and friends,
I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. May the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4) continue to sustain you during this difficult time. May you find solace in John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 that tells us of a time when there will be no more sickness and death and when our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death will be restored to perfect life in a paradise earth. With deepest sympathy.
