

Jeanette E. Wilks

November 9, 1951 - November 16, 2006

Jeanette Elizabeth Wilks, daughter of mother Emma Frances Wilks and the late Bishop Charles T. Wilks Sr. was born at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland, on November 9, 1951. She departed this life on November 16, 2006 after lengthy illness. She was the second child in the family of four children. She was educated and graduated from Western Senior High School in June 1969. She received an Associate in Arts degree from the Community College of Baltimore in June 1972. She also attended Coppin State University. For a number of years until her health failed, she was employed with the Social Security Administration. At an early age, Jeanette was nurtured in the rich and godly heritage of the apostolic tradition. She accepted the Lord Jesus as her personal savior and was baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost. She was a member of the Apostolic Faith. She also frequented other churches of the same such as First Apostolic and First United Church of God. Jeanette loved family gatherings and visits to the amusement parks and beaches. She also loved to travel and visited several states up and down the east coast of the United States from Canada to Florida. She also traveled to various countries in Europe. Jeanette was also committed to and a lover of music. She was on the church choir, and did Tony Winston direct a member of the Jesus Movement and the Charm City Community Choir. Some of her favorite songs were, "When I think of the Goodness of Jesus," "Going Up Yonder," "His Eye is on the Sparrow," and "O Happy Day," She knew the power of prayer and knew how to pray. She made peace with who she was and content with what she had. Quite often there were times when Jeanette would say, "I'm Blessed because I am saved." Or "I can do all things through Christ Whom Strengthens Me," She also said "Jesus was the center of her joy." She thought that being brief was an art: and repeated what she had read some time ago. "We will be judged for every careless word we speak. In, the multitude of words sin is not lacking. Our words should be few, full of grace and worth repeating. Due to failing health she leaves to join her father Bishop Chas T. Wilks, Sr. Those who cherish her memory: her mother, Mother Emma F. Wilks; two brothers Charles T. Wilks, Jr., and Arnold Lee Wilks; one sister, Shelia Wilks; one sister-in-law, Barbara D. Wilks; four uncles, James A. Wilks, Norman Ray Wilks, George E. Wilks, Alton E. Wilks, Nathan Cromwell, Roy Pollard, and Bishop Norman McQueen; seven aunts, Pastor Shirley Roane, Dr. Clara Mayes, LaVerne Pollard, Gladys Roane, Willie May Matthews, Pastor Thelma McQueen, Linda L. Wilks, Valerie Wilks, Faye Wilks and Vivian Roane; three nieces, Ashley B. Wilkes, Sharmalita J. Christian and Christiana, Evg. Irma L. Coldberry, and a host of in-laws, cousins, family, and friends

Tribute Wall

“ Jeanette E. Wilks

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM