

Jeanette Epperson

June 14, 1941 - September 25, 2015

JEANETTE EPPERSON was born June 14th, 1941 (Flag Day) in Baltimore, Maryland . She departed on September 25th, 2015.

She was a natural, self-taught artist who later on in life received a scholarship to attend Maryland Institute College of Art, given to her spent some of her time working in her community schools teaching art. Not only did she teach school students, but also adults. Jeanette's art work is known throughout the Baltimore City Public School System for the elaborate murals. These murals are still on display in many schools as well as sculptures she created that have been placed in time capsules on three on three different public school buildings.

She married Preston Epperson, Jr. who departed five years before her departure.

From that union two children, Hellene Epperson and Renee Epperson. Ferguson were born. Above all things, she was a devoted wife loving mother and magnificent person to have known and had the pleasure of meeting. She will be missed but carried in our hearts and memories.

Jeanette was a creative and loving person, She was someone who you knew would have your back in good and bad times. She was friendly and kind to all she has ever encounter. She loved to play her oldies but goodies, as she would call it while cooking in the kitchen and dancing with her children in between, Whether it was going for long walks, teaching them to fish alongside her husband or playing cards, she cradled her family and showered them with love, care and understanding. A true jack of all trades, well mastered when in her later years she became ill, the love never stopped. She would continue pouring herself into her family and pressing forward.

She leaves behind: one son Emanuel Epperson; two daughters, Hellene Epperson and Renee Epperson Ferguson, six grandchildren; and a host of other friends and family.

“ To the Epperson family I wish to offer my deepest sympathy. These are the times when we lean on our Heavenly Father the most. May you find comfort in the Psalmist's words at Ps. 34:18.

Sharon Harris - October 02, 2015 at 11:47 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death of a loved one can be very devastating. However, God's word the Bible provides us with promises of a time when no resident will say they are sick (Isa. 33:24) and a time when death will be done away with forever (Rev. 21:3,4). Meditating on those promises will give us strength to endure as we anxiously await the fulfillment of them. I pray that the fond memories you share will too provide you with a sense of comfort during your time of sorrow.
