

Jeanette Mary Harcum

November 6, 1941 - August 31, 2017

Jeanette Mary Smith Harcum (Nettie-baby), daughter of the late Mabel Virginia Macer Baker and James V. Smith. She was born November 6, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a lengthy battle with cancer, Nettie entered eternal rest on Thursday, August 31, 2017.

Nettie graduated from Carver High School in Baltimore City. She worked in the healthcare profession and drove a cab for in and around Baltimore for many years.

Fondly referred to as Nettie-baby, she was known to be a very engaging people-person, who loved and cared for many. Her home was always opened to anyone needing a place to stay, a comforting word, some encouragement or just something to eat. She greeted everyone with her million-dollar smile. Everyone who knew her, knew she loved a game of chance and always strived for that big one.

Nettie is preceded in death by Jerome Harcum, Lawrence Wallace, her brother Wayne Baker and her son, Nathan Harcum.

She leaves to cherish her memory her 3 daughters, Mary (Kevin), Renee (Jeff), and Bonnie, 4 sons, Jerry, Eric (Diane), Cornelius (Amy), and Anthony, 29 grandchildren, 47 great-grandchildren, 12 brothers and sisters, John (Smack), James (Jimmie), Lillian (Lil), Robert (Rob), Diane (Annie), Anthony (Tony), Randy, Vernell, Jamie, Celeste (Bunny), William (Will), Aunt Vera, Aunt Jenny and a host of other Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, in-laws, other relatives and friends.
