

Jeanette M. Lawson

November 27, 1925 - February 12, 2016

JEANETTE MADELINE LAWSON was born on November 27, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Mary Gross and Percy Wallace. God, in His infinite wisdom, transitioned her from labor to reward on February 12, 2016.

Jeanette accepted Christ at an early age and she attended Christian Community Church for many years where she sang on the choir.

Jeanette was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and then she attended Cortez Peters Business School. While seeking additional skills in business courses, she worked at South Baltimore General Hospital as a Lab Technician for thirty years at which time she retired.

Jeanette loved family gatherings with her children and grandchildren and always looked forward to special celebration with her family and friends. Jeanette, affectionately known as “Madeline” or “Mat”, met and married the late Andrew Lawson and from this union came five children (of which two preceded her in death, Lawrence Wallace and Vera Terry, and two great-grandchildren, Romie Zeiglar and Tanicka Terry).

Madeline leaves to mourn: three children, Mshinda (John), Christopher, and Michele; eleven grandchildren, Karen, Brian, Renee, Leonard (Royce), Reginald, Marvin, Denise, Trina, Michael (Robynne), Monique (Blake), and Christopher, Jr.; twenty-two great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Until the very end, Jeanette never stopped praising God or telling of His goodness in her life. We will never say goodbye or stop singing songs of praise for her loving life as a Mother, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother and Great-Great-Grandmother.
