“ To the Family and Friends of Jeanette Grace Pretty,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

“*Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.*

*Sincerely,
A Bible Student*

How great God is. God chose to pick one of is most precious flowers from earth and plant this flower in his eternal garden in heaven. I have to say that my heart is heavy missing my second mother. She was such a wonderfu woman who had a way of making everyone feel so special and loved. I am coming to terms with knowing she had to go home because God only wants to the best in his Kingdom. She is now resting and her life is just beginning in heaven. God bless the family who is still here to mourn the loss of mama. Wrap your loving arms around everyone. I am just at a loss for words so I will just end this now with ALL THE GLORY, HONOR AND PRAISE GOES TO GOD. Mama rest now because your work here on earth is done. You have passed with flying colors.
