

Jeanette Taylor

September 6, 1958 - April 24, 2006

JEANETTE L. TAYLOR, daughter of the late William Lamont Smalls, Jr. and Mable Smalls, was born on September 6, 1958. She was called home to rest on April 24, 2006. She received her education from the Baltimore City Public School System, and was gainfully employed for many years in the field of nursing. At the time of her departure, Jeanette was employed at the Levindale Hebrew Geriatric Center and Hospital. Jeanette, affectionately known as Nettie, was a loving person who enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren. She had a fondness for colorful handbags and coats and will always be remembered for her unique hairstyles. Nettie made many friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was truly a devoted daughter, mother, sister and friend. She was especially a loving grandmother to her Daddy (Kevin) and Shawny (Shawntrice). Jeanette was preceded in death by two sisters, Margaret (Niecy) and Janet (P-nut). She is survived by her mother, Mable Smalls; her husband, Robert; four children, Darcell (Ms. Little), Dale (Manny), Lionel (Bootsy) and Jacob (Jake); three sisters, Jacqueline, Darlene and Darcell; two brothers, Neamon and Frederick; two grandchildren, Kevin and Shawntrice; a son-in-law, Christopher; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello, To her family and friends.It has been a year now that your loved one has been gone. I know she is not forgotten.She is also in the memory of our heavenly father Jehovah.The bible describes death as a deep sleep,is that not comforting.When we think of sleep,we also think of waking up.In the bible at Mark5:39-42 jesus himself refer death as being sleep.One day soon we will see her again,when all those in the memorial tombs will awaken from their deep sleep.I just wanted to share that thought of hope that Jehovah has given us for the NEAR future.##imported-begin##Omo'lara,C##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the family for your loss. Sickness and death unfortunately continues to stalk the human family, and saddly takes our loved ones away from us. Death is so unfair. We desire our loved ones to here with us always. Almighty God Jehova knows the deep pain we experience, and he has promised to put an end to sickness and death in the very near future according to bible prophecy. Daniel 12:2 tells us "there will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up." Also, 1st Cor 15:26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." So we can put faith in his promises, because God is love. 1st John 4:8. Please keep his promises close to your heart whenever your're feeling down, and also reflect on your precious memories until that glorious day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. It seems so unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The bible is comforting in this regards. At Acts 24:15, Almighty God promise a "resurrection" into a beautiful paradise. Yes, please be comforted by the fact that Almighty God will make this a reality.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ In Sympathy No time on earth is long enough to share with those we love or to prepare our hearts for good-bye. May time soften the pain until all that remains is the comfort of memories?and the love, always the love. God said he would never leave us alone nor would he forsaken us, so take comfort in God's loving arms. Sincerely, Lamont&Stephanie Wade and Family##imported-begin##Lamont Wade##imported-end##

“ My condolences on the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in knowing that the pangs of death will soon be done away with. Jehovah's promise at Isaiah 25:8, where it mentions that "he will actually swallow up death forever", will soon be fulfilled.##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Jeanette Taylor, you have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair to lose our loved ones. Death is truly a sting. May you find comfort from knowing that that Jehovah is a God of Love (1John 4:8) and he has made provisions for us to see our loved ones again. (John 5:28, 29)##imported-begin##M.
