“ Mrs Jeannie Link was a strong, loving and encouraging force for my Nephews Brian and Eugene. She seemingly was not just a Grandmother to her family but she was that way to all children and anyone that crossed her path. Kennay lovingly called her Grandma. She was a loving Grandma to a Bella, Charlie and Brea and so many. She would tell me no matter how old she gets she was gonna wear her heels and stockings. Rest In Peace your work here is done.

“ I love you Grandma! I will always cherish my summers in Baltimore and our long talks on the phone. We would laugh for hours. You always had a good word and smile for everyone and you loved to dance! I think I will cherish the memory of you “Bopping and cutting the rug” to your favorite song most of all. May you Rest In Peace with Grandpop. I love and miss you already. Your grand-daughter Stacey.
