

Jeanne Marie Brooks

April 12, 1955 - October 27, 2003

Jeanne M. Brooks, daughter of Christine E. Brooks and Joseph M. Brooks was born on April 12, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 27, 2003 due to brain cancer. Jeanne received her education at Western High School in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of 33, Jeanne purchased an antique rocker for $5. It was in desperate need of repair. She taught herself how to cane from a book on chair caning and soon taught her parents, brothers and sister. Brooks Recaning Company was established from her God-given talent and hard work. In 1990 Jeanne began work with the Mass Transit Authority of Maryland and remained a valued employee until her retirement earlier this year due to illness. Jeanne had a wonderful appreciation for flowers, antiques, interior decorating and bargain shopping. She took great joy in finding quality furnishing at reasonable prices. Even throughout her long illness, Jeanne was always encouraging others. She did not complain. She was always diligent in helping others and was a good friend. At her home in Pikesville, Jeanne maintained a beautiful garden and well kept landscaping. Jeanne is survived by: her parents, Joseph and Christine Brooks; her siblings, Joseph Milton Brooks, Jr., Carolyn Rose Banks, David Anthony Brooks and Paul Linwood Brooks; one sister-in-law, Katrina Brooks; one brother-in-law, James Banks; five nieces and nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy to your family on the loss of Jeanne. I knew her while working with her at MTA. I had retired so I missed her memorial, because I didn"t hear about it until recently. I am so sorry, because Jeanne was a very nice person, who was loved by everyone on the job. I hope it comforts you to know that very soon, under God's kingdom death will be done away with. Imagine the joy we will have when we will see our dear loved ones again in the promised ressurection. God is so loving, and he wants all of his children to live forever in peace and happiness. I hope you find comfort in the scriptures and in your cherished memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
