“ Jeannette and I met as students at St. Frances Academy. We immediately hit it off. Our paths crossed infrequently after that but every every reunion brought a hardly smile and a common love for the early school years. Condolences to their family and friends. Love and prayers .

“ My first and fondest memory of Jennette is from about 50 years ago. It was prom night for me and William Wise and several other couples including her brother, Larry Sykes. Instead of all of us going to crowded and noisy clubs after the prom, Jeannette invited us to come to her house afterwards. When we got there, we were in awe. She had decorated the basement with soft colored lamps, several tables for two, great music and a delicious meal. It was a jaw dropping wow moment. All of us felt special and appreciated. For me, it was the first time I had actually been in such a warm and welcoming home.

In later years, I also worshiped at Bethel AME Church and served along with Jeannette. As was mentioned several times during the Celebration of Life Service today, Jeannette left her can-do imprint on so many. Thank you family for sharing her with us.

“ I remember Ms. Sykes teaching us how to be a lady, how to dance and she was a strong influence over my formative years in choosing what school I would attend, etc.. She was no nonsense but you always knew she cared. She selected metro be the African face lead. It really gave me belief in myself. Thank you Ms. Sykes!

“ She was my teacher at St Frances Academy back in the early 70's. She left an indelible impression on me and always encouraged us to do the very best. She was the second Alpha Kappa Alpha woman I ever met. I have thought about her for years. Rest well my dear Soror. I followed your steps. I hope my journey has made you proud. 💕💕💚🙏 Sonya Evans Saunders. SFA. Class of 1974.

“ This angel will be sorely missed! My earliest and fondest memories of Jeannette Sykes Atkins was watching her graceful ability as she danced before the Lord!! Graceful and intentional in her movements and life. To her family and the kingdom she moved on and in divine purpose never for the sake of appearances. Her power and authority with her truth will never be forgotten. I will forever call her name!!
