

Jeannette Pickett Hardy

July 15, 1947 - December 8, 2025

Jeannette Pickett Hardy was born on July 15, 1947, in Richmond, Virginia, to the late Viola and Ulysses Pickett. She was educated in Richmond Public Schools and went on to build a long and dedicated career at Philip Morris International, where she faithfully served for 34 years before retiring in 2007.

Jeannette was one of nine children and cherished the meaning of family. She loved to travel—especially to her favorite destination, the casino—where she enjoyed excitement, laughter, and making joyful memories.

She was preceded in death by her brothers Charles Taylor and Thomas Taylor; her sisters Bernice Taylor, Margaret Taylor, and Rosa Lomax; and her grandson, Jayden Chambliss.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sons Carlton Hardy Sr. and Earl Robertson (Lishonna); her daughter Shantell Chambliss (Jesse); and her grandchildren Latoya Mandel (Edward), Tashemia Pringle, Cardaesha Hardy, William Baker III (Tierra), Savannah Burns, Kenya Baker, Carlton Hardy Jr., and Ryan Chambliss.

She is also survived by five great-grandchildren: Sa'Riah Mandel, Zoei' Mandel, Josiah Mandel, Taivon Pringle, and Saiyr Baker.

Jeannette leaves behind her brother Raymond Pickett (Terri); her sisters, including her twin, Joyce Clark, and Brenda Coles; as well as extended family members Toni Pringle, Lakisha Baker, and Nicole Williams, along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

“ My memories of my grandmother are simple yet deeply meaningful. She always welcomed me and my siblings with love taking us out to eat, allowing us to play freely in her backyard, and opening her room to us at night, even when she fussed. Through it all, her love was constant and unconditional. I never had a problem with my grandmother; I only wish I had been able to spend more time with her. I will forever cherish the moments we shared. She was deeply loved and will be greatly missed. Love Savannah <3
