

Jeannette Louise Copeland

April 19, 1915 - July 1, 2009

Jeannette was born to the late George and Clara Tunstall of Richmond, Virginia. She is predeceased by her parents, Clara and George Tunstall, brother Elijah H. Temple, nephew Marion Harris and niece Doris A. Bernard.

Jeannette lived in New York for many years in which she loved the big city lifestyle and also lived in Connecticut to be closer to her family. She later returned home to Virginia where she lived the final years of her life. Jeannette had a great passion for arts and crafts, but her greatest passion was shopping and traveling. She leaves to cherish her memories, her niece Delores T. Jordan (Walter) of Bloomfield, CT., niece Elsie Colvin of Richmond, VA., nephew Roger Temple of Montclair, NJ and a host of great nieces and nephews, relatives and friends. We praise and thank the Lord for a great-niece, Flora M. Butler of Chesterfield, VA., who stood by her faithfully with compassion and caregiving.

Tribute Wall

“ Jeannette Louise Copeland

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Copeland Family: Ms. Copeland you were like a grandmother to me. I never got to say Good Bye. We used to go out to eat and I was out of town when God took you to a better place. You will always be in my heart and never forgotten. I love you Granny Copeland###imported-begin###Missie Dugger###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM