“ I shall miss my silent friend, quiet and pensive to the end. He'd say how you doing, Ms. Morgan State. I'd say, quite blessed, God is great. He'd smile at me I'd smile at him. He encouraged me often, he was my friend. Time will pass and grieving shall cease, I'll see him again. He is at peace. Miss you Eli. Love, sister Alice Brooks, Church of Christ in E. Baltimore.

“ I remember when I first met you, you asked Jeff the question of "when is the wedding?" As awkward as that was, Jeff said, "I'll make sure you're invited". Thank you for automatically making me a part of the family and feeling so comfortable with me. I will also cherish the many positive text messages you would send us to let us know that you love us and that you're thinking of us. It would always place a smile on our faces. The most memorable text was "Sunday Morning Joy." Until we see each other again, please rest easy.
