

Jeffrey Lamont Bond

June 2, 1958 - January 31, 2013

2 Timothy 4: 7-8

Softly and gently, Jesus called our beloved son, Jeffrey Lamont Bond, Sr. home to be at rest on January, 2013. He was born June 2, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland to Mildred D. Reason.

This Little Light of Mine:

Jeffery was affectionately called Pudd, a nickname given to him by his mom and grandmother as a baby. As he became more mature , he was known as the “Professor” because of his wit and brilliant thinking. Always having new ideas and not afraid to take a chance at anything . He would always say, “I’ll take chance at anything once.

Jeff was graduate of Forest Park High School. He attended one year at Towson State College. Jeff was employed at Blue Cross/Blue Blue Shield for a number of years and he also worked at BaltimoreCounty General Hospital as a medical tech . In 2006 Jeff was certified as an Architect Developer, He later owned and operated . The Bond Home Improvement. & Interior decorators. He completed his parents home in style and class. Their home was his showcase which many compliments of how it had so much warmth and décor.

He did it his way:

Jeff was a very classic and stylish dresser, always taking pride in himself. He had many suits and shoes. His hair and beard always had to cut a certain way. We always admired his style of dress and his bright smile.

But by His Grace:

Jeff was member of Ark Church from childhood. He was always of lover of music. He enjoyed the music ministry at Ark Church where he once was a musician drummer. Later he became ill and washome bound before permanently residing in the nursing home.

The Family that prays:

Jeffery leaves precious memories to his parents whom he loved dearly, Manson & Mildred Ludlow and Houston Brooks, Jr. Two daughters, Kym Horne of Raleigh, N.C. and LaKeshia Bond three sons, Ryan, Terry, and Jeffery L. Bond, Jr; four grand-daughters, Shi-Kyme, Shi-Niyua, Shi-Mirror and Noll; two grandsons, Latrey and Angelo Bond; two brothers, Eugene & Cameron Brooks, Sr: one brother proceeded him in death, Marvin Jay Brooks, Sr on March 10, 2011, Two sisters Michelle Holloway and Sonia Whitfield; one uncle, Minister William Reason, Jr and one aunt Emma Reason A host of nieces, nephews and cousins from Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia and Chester, Va Special cousins; Bishop Jerry M. Kelly, dr, Brenda Kelly, Dr. Larelle Kelly and Dr. Jessica Kelly all from Chester and Hopewell, Virginia. To God Be the Glory!

“Live for Jeff and Jay has not ended really, it has only just began in Jesus!”

Love Mom

“ To My Dear Brother,
I remember when we were little kids in elementary school and our mothers told us to look out for each other. Your mother had the boys and my mother had the girls. As I look at your picture, you grew up to be a handsome man.

I am truly going to miss you. You and Jay were my brothers.

So as time goes by, I will always cherish our conversations and hold onto our special memories.

I will see you again someday my brother.

I will always love you

“ Please accept my sympathies for your loss. While I may not know exactly how you feel, Almighty God does. At Psalm 56:8, King David said to God "Do put my tears in your skin bottle." Trust that Almighty God knows your pain and as the God of all comfort, he will give you the exact comfort you need. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 May you find comfort and strength in the promise of Jesus Christ to restore our dead loved ones back to life with us on earth as found at Matthew 5:5 and John 5:28,29.

A. Stepney - February 04, 2013 at 11:23 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
