

Jenae Raki Alexander

February 23, 1980 - December 18, 2013

JÉNAE RAKI ALEXANDER (affectionately known as Missy, Ida, and Suga), daughter of Demaris Alexander and Kenneth Johnson, was born on February 23, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland. After battling a lengthy illness, God saw fit to call her home.

“Missy” received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked at Johns Hopkins Hospital in the Nutrition Dept. and later was employed briefly at Food Depot Supermarket until her illness caused her to leave her job. Missy loved being a mom to her two children, K’Mya, whom she affectionately called “Moonk” and Drashawn whom she affectionately called “Dink”. Missy had a big heart and was loved by all who came in contact with her. Her door was open to all who needed a place to stay, a babysitter or just a friendly environment. Although not in the professional sense, she had the role of counselor, court liaison, secretary, lawyer, and cell phone information representative.

“Missy” accepted her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in 2012 along with her children. They were all baptized on April 15th of that same year by Pastor Charles A. Goods of Christian Temple Baptist Church. She often listened to God’s word through music. One of her favorite selections was “I Give Myself Away.”

“Missy” enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest until her illness took over. She loved spending time with her children and mother. Their outings included going out to eat and going to the movies. Her favorite food was seafood. She loved listening to 92Q and watching her favorite TV show, Law & Order: SVU.

“Missy” leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Drashawn; daughter, K’Mya; mother, Demaris Alexander; father, Kenneth Johnson; three sisters, Nikki, Tia and Natalie; two brothers, Kenny Jr. and Donnell; a special brother, Don-Don and a special little sister, Tyeisha; as well as a special older sister, Pam; and a special cousin who was like a brother, Devin. Also, two grandmothers, Ms. Alethia Boone and Mrs. Jereline McLaurin; and step-grandfather, Mr. Mac McLaurin; along with a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and friends.

“ I will always remember you messy I could never forget the good times we had and than our birthday is rite there wow imma miss you even more

Mcleanrichard Still Standing - January 15, 2014 at 10:20 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - December 27, 2013 at 07:49 PM

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15: 26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
