

Jenelvyn Wilson

February 14, 1933 - August 20, 2024

JENELVYN WILSON, born on February 14, 1933, in Baltimore, Maryland, passed away peacefully leaving behind a legacy of love, strength, and cherished memories.

A woman of many talents, she had a deep passion for arts and crafts and found great joy in sewing & gardening. Her creativity shone through in the countless projects she lovingly created. She was a fan of classic game shows, episodes of Wheel of Fortune, Jeopardy, and Family Feud to name a few. These moments of entertainment were among her favorite pastimes, offering both enjoyment and a bit of friendly competition from her living room.

Her love for television extended to soap operas, with All my Children, One Life to Live and other beloved stories providing her with an escape and a daily connection to the drama and intrigue she found so captivating.

Jenelvyn spent several years working at London Fog, where she was known for her dedication and strong work ethic. A strong-willed and determined woman, she valued the importance of health, ensuring that vegetables were a staple in her diet and that daily walks kept her active and vibrant well into her later years.

Above all, she was a devoted family member, dedicating much of her life to raising and nurturing several nieces and nephews, Eddie Ray Barksdale, Jerry Barksdale, Quantina Barksdale, Marcia Moore/Barksdale, Travis Ezi, the late Kelvin Gibson, Rickey Barksdale, Henry Gibson, Coretta Barksdale, Kathleen Barksdale, Alberta Gibson and the late Kenya Ezi. Preceding her in death are her Mom Elizabeth Barksdale, her Dad Willie Edward Barksdale and Brother Edward Fred Barksdale to whom she provided love, guidance, and support. Her unwavering commitment to her family was a testament to her generous spirit and the deep bonds throughout her life.

Jenelvyn will be remembered for her strength, her love of life's simple pleasures, and her unwavering devotion to those she held dear. She leaves behind a legacy of love that will be cherished by all who were fortunate enough to know her.

May She Rest In Peace.
