“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. There is much hope for our loved ones who have been taken away by the enemy death. (1 Corinthians 15:26) Almighty God gives us the hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5) Acts 24:15 confirms that by declaring- "...there is going to be a resurrection..." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family of Mrs. Burgess on your loss. Death is really a tragic event in our lives that at present we can do nothing about. Our loving heavenly Jehovah, however, has a wonderful purpose to bring an end to death, and all of it's causes. Noone wants to lose a family member, because we all miss them so very much when they leave us, and it's just not right. God never wanted this for the human race. That is why he sent his beloved son, Christ Jesus, to bring an end to sickness and death by means of his precious blood. That is why he said at John 10:10, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." Very soon, a ressurection of the dead will take place worldwide, and all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29. May you find comfort in the hope of seeing your loved one come to life again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
