“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Ms. Jennie, I am sorry to see you leave. I know God has you safe now in his best care. He wanted to care for you so, he called you. "We Rejoice" I feel blessed to had been introduced to you while you were briefly in my mom's care (Ms. Maggie). I remember you saying, "Your daughter looks just like you, Ms. Maggie". I am looking at your picture now; I called my Mom and told her I saw a photo of you when you were younger; she wants a copy of it. You're still wonderful and he (Our Creator) has received you WELL!!!! Love ya, Brandy###imported-begin##Brandy K. Fauntleroy###imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Ms. Jones' family and friends. The loss of a dear loved one can be very painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up," according to Daniel 12:2. I hope this message comforts your hearts.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Jones 1 May I take this time to send my condolences to you all in the lost of Ms. Jennie. Living in these last day is getting harder to do. Ms. Jennie was 95 years young when she died. I am sure through those years there were many great things she did and said to people to make them happy. The bible has many promises of our heavenly father to comfort us as 2 Cor.1:3 say.I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting to all of you .May all the cherished memories of Ms. Jennie remain close. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I'm very sorry that you lost your Jennie. I know how painful it is to lose a loved one in death myself, and it can be so difficult to bear. What comforts me, and I pray will comfort you is the hope of the ressurection. Notice Rev 21,4 which says about God, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Another comforting scripture is Acts 24:15 which says, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May those promises fill you with hope, and help to sustain you in the difficult days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
